

“Number 10”
Arrowtown, New Zealand

Amanda Bloom
March 14, 2017

Hip Arrowtown Split-Level for 12 with Idyllic Courtyard & Hot Tub

A Perfect 10

Picture a vibrantly red living room and matching shag carpet, with French doors letting the breeze in from a gorgeously landscaped courtyard. Imagine the feel of fine Turkish towels on skin still warm from the outdoor cedar hot tub, and the taste of delicious New Zealand wines sipped from your perch on the new deck.

Number 10's spacious and eclectic split-level layout is perfect for families, reunions, and weddings. Accommodate 12 people between 10 Above and 10 Below, with your four-legged friends welcome to join you downstairs.

Our fresh and funky Arrowtown home was lovingly built for vacations, with all of the renovations and colorful paint schemes done by us! (Get hip on Kiwi lingo before you arrive—holiday homes are known as “cribs” in our area and “bachs” to the rest of New Zealand.)

Airy 10 Above, Brilliant 10 Below

Upstairs, 10 Above boasts high ceilings, a classy black and white decor, and sun-drenched living spaces. Indulge in hors d'oeuvres and the local red on the brand-new deck, and retire in one of three cozy-chic bedrooms at the end of the day—there are two queen-size bedrooms and another with two twins. 10 Above also has air conditioning.

Jewel tones and wanderlust run rampant in 10 Below, where the secluded courtyard beckons you from the ruby red living room—leave the French doors open for a bit of fresh air and birdsong. Two bedrooms have queen-size beds, and the library has a futon equivalent to one king or two twins. Plan your next excursion via the world map covering the library wall.

Find funky decor upstairs and down, much of it collected from our travels around the world. Both levels are fully equipped with kitchens, washer dryers, wood burners, heaters, and electric blankets, with SkyTV and UE Boom speakers for entertainment.

Arrowtown, Where History Meets Nature

Number 10 lives on a quiet, tree-lined street a 10-minute walk from Arrowtown's heritage Main Street. Golf courses, summer trails, fine restaurants, and wineries abound in the area, and it's only 15 minutes to the ski fields for fresh powder all winter long.

Arrowtown itself is charming and quirky —an enchanting gold rush village nestled below the beautiful mountains along Arrow River. Seeking a taste of heart-pounding adventure in an absolutely stunning setting? Queenstown, famous for bungee jumping, jet-boating, and sky diving, is only a 25-minute drive away.

Our cool retreat promises a private getaway for you and your crew, with the best of New Zealand's South Island at your fingertips. We're sure you'll love our Arrowtown oasis as much as we do.